

LOCAL NEWS.

A slight washout occurred yesterday at Red Rock. It has been repaired.

Miss Julia A. Thomas has been commissioned postmistress at Arizona.

C. T. Connel has a job of July. In honor thereof he keeps a flag flying over his house.

A new postoffice has been made at Wagoner, Yavapai county, with Miss A. Wagoner in charge.

The Santa Cruz is again up and running. It is higher than Sunday. Banks are saving somewhat.

The passenger train from the east due last night arrived this morning at 5 o'clock.

Plenty of rain is reported from Solomonsville region, and the cattle thereabouts are wearing their tails over their backs.

Hall's Hair Renewer renders the hair lustrous and silken, gives it an even color, and enables women to put it up in a great variety of styles.

The city water is again clear. It did not become muddy from the wells, but through valves along the main being opened and mud was got in. The valves have been closed.

There are no more capable or genial railroad men in Arizona than those in the management of the Arizona & New Mexico railroad, running from Benson to Nogales. —Albuquerque Citizen.

A brakeman named Davis was somewhat injured in the wreck at Stein's Pass yesterday, where two engines were derailed by a washout. Davis was caught between a tender and engine, injured him somewhat. He is now in the hospital.

The letter received yesterday stating that Wm. Florsheim's body would be brought to Tucson for burial in error. Mr. Florsheim's body was not in the train. The letter was a mistake.

Notwithstanding great pyrotechnics of the heavens and the rain and crash of thunder last night no rain fell along the line of the Santa Cruz. No sign of any rain station on the Tucson divisions reporting any.

The spars for the electric light towers are being put in readiness. One has been shipped, excepting binding the splices with wire. The other will be made ready at once. They will be set up in about ten days.

The cattle case against Paul & Zellweger has been appealed to the district court. The inspector will now go on with his duties as provided by the disputed law, and in case of further violations will make further arrests.

Another excursion to Santa Monica and the coast will be made by the Santa Cruz. It will start from El Paso August 7, reaching Tucson at 3:30 p. m. of that day, as part of the regular train. The fare to Santa Monica and return will be $28.30, as before.

The bicycle ordinance is being carried out faithfully and conscientiously by the city officers. All have bells. One man put a huge gong on his wheel eight inches in diameter. Another had a cow bell. No sign of bells at crossings is not enough to provoke a petition to have them suppressed.

Tucson is in order for cholera. Dr. Spencer, city health officer, reports that the sanitary conditions are in the first rate. The four places about town have been made right quickly and conditions can be but little improved. Tucson has no cases of cholera or other epidemic.

At Silver Lake tomorrow Messrs. Finley and Aldridge will once more test their skill in a match at fifteen, live balls, each for $50 a side. In addition there will be several other interesting matches both at live balls and blue balls. The first match at 10 a. m. Go and see the crack shots.

From Wilcox W. W. Dickinson reports that the new pumping plant is prospering. A fine big field of alfalfa has been put in. The water is good. The failure of water coming during the late unpropitious dry season. Grass is starting well about Wilcox.

Of Yuma J. B. Bitts says: The town on the Colorado is thriving. The river is a little lower. Agriculture is coming on well. A car load of fine melons a day is shipped to California. The Blaisdell pumping plant is a big success. The height to the hotel will be built on the heights overlooking the hotel and river, on the site of the old river.

Owing to the stringency of the money market operations will not be resumed on the Deming-Mexico railroad south for some months. In the meantime all arrangements are going forward and work will commence as soon as the condition of finances improves. The concessions have been renewed for a term of two years.

The attempt to get the Mexican charged with murder in California out on habeas corpus this morning before Judge Scott was not successful. He was held for fifteen days to await papers from California. His attorneys, Theo. Borton, claims that the indictment was not in proper form. He will probably employ attorneys who will challenge the indictment. The sheriff is expected on tonight's train.

Shorter hours at the railroad shops in this city have been ordered, beginning next Monday. From that date the force will work but eight hours a day, beginning at 7 in the morning to 3 p. m. The cut was not for the Tucson shops alone, but in effect on the whole Southern Pacific system. On other big systems shorter hours have been ordered in the shops.

News of more Yaqui depredations in Mexico have been received. Jose Ybarra, employed by the Tucson Cigar Company, is in receipt of the sad intelligence that two weeks ago the body of his father, Antonio Ybarra, was found dead in a field. The cause of death is only conjecture. The deceased was the owner of a fine mine a few miles from Ures, Sonora. He was on his way to Ures, Sonora, when he was killed. The body was found in a field. The cause of death is only conjecture. The deceased was the owner of a fine mine a few miles from Ures, Sonora. He was on his way to Ures, Sonora, when he was killed. The body was found in a field. The cause of death is only conjecture.

THREE MORE.

The Denver Banks Still Failing.

COLORADO'S BIGGEST MINE.

Pumps Withdrawn from Big Silver Properties and the Work of Years Lost.

Denver, Colo., July 19.—The panic in this city opened this morning with renewed vigor as the result of the old German National bank, with a reputation for stability of twenty years' standing, the usually reputable State National and extremely strong Peoples' National banks having failed this morning. All night long depositors stood in line in front of the German National. By 9 o'clock one long sea of faces was stretching down Utah street.

At the opposite corner, where the State National has no long done business, there was also a crowd of anxious depositors. Here the people were relieved of their doubts when at 9 o'clock a notice was posted on the door that the bank would not open an account of lack of ready cash.

At the German National, just before opening time, a notice was posted on the door that the doors were closed temporarily. This notice caused a distressing scene. Men and women along the line broke out in tears and wailing. The run on all the remaining banks in the city has been renewed. Reliable people, however, say there will be no more suspensions.

The State National bank has just posted a notice that its doors will not be opened today.

The German National bank failed to open its doors this morning.

The Peoples' National bank has closed its doors, posting the following notice: "This bank is closed by order of the board of directors. Assets, $1,000,000; liabilities, $1,000,000."

PANAMA, July 19.—The Peoples' bank opened this morning with plenty of coin. Only $4 was drawn out. The first hour's deposits were liberal.

MORE IN KANSAS.

WASHINGTON, July 19.—The controller of the currency has been advised that the Hutchinson National bank, of Hutchinson, Kansas, has failed.

A NEWSPAPER GOES DOWN.

MOBILE, Ala., July 19.—The Daily Register, one of the oldest newspapers in the south, has made an assignment. Publication will continue by authority of the court.

WACO, Texas, July 19.—Senator Cooper says he will not vote for the repeal of the Sherman act unless a substitute is adopted. He is a free silver man.

LONDON, July 19.—Advice confirms the continued statement that President has wired an ultimatum to the Siamese government to be complied in within twenty-four hours.

PANAMA, July 19.—The Fivaro says the terms of the French ultimatum to Siam demand that Siam vacate the left bank of the Mekong river and give a guarantee for the faithful performance of the treaty obligations, and that Siam pay an indemnity for outrages on the French in Siam complex with these demands. Siam will control both sides of the river up to British territory.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 19.—The vice president and party arrived here at 10:30 a. m. on the steamer Corona from San Francisco, where they were given a reception yesterday.

Governor Markham, Mayor Elliott, the board of supervisors and a committee of leading citizens on board the tug Fairbank met the Corona at the entrance of the harbor and boarded her. There a fleet of over twenty tugs escorted the Corona down the bay. As she passed the presidio and Alcatraz, salutes of nineteen guns were fired by the United States artillery.

The vice president will be escorted from the wharf to the Baldwin by a troop of regular cavalry and a regiment of national guards this evening. There will be a public reception in Nicholas Hall, at which the vice president will be presented with the freedom of the city.

LEADVILLE, Colo., July 19.—Orders have been received to take out the pumps from the Great West and Harrietta combination. The shaft is nearly 1000 feet deep.

Pulling these pumps means the entire abandonment of one of the largest silver producers in the state, with prospects that water will rise to within 300 feet of the surface. This means that every drift and level will be flooded and every drive of the present workings, upon which $1,000,000 has been expended.

The flooding of the mine also means the flooding of properties lying below. It is impossible to estimate the damage caused.

CHICAGO, July 19.—President Higginbottom issued an order to close up Pugin Jim Corbett's vaudeville show on midway platform. Corbett has ignored the order, and the World-Telegram is waiting for orders from Higginbottom as to whether the order is to be executed by law proceedings or by force.

SAN BERNARDINO, Cal., July 19.—A party of eastern capitalists are visiting the Grand canon of the Colorado river. It is said, for the purpose of investigating the feasibility of laying an electric cable 500 miles in length along the river with which to drive small steamers through the Grand canon and other scenic points, where the cliffs over a mile in height overhang. Another feature of the scheme is said to be to generate surplus power down the river, where it will be used for pumping the water of the river to the height of from fifteen to twenty feet upon mesa lands for irrigation.

CHICAGO, July 19.—The coroner's jury investigating the World's fair fire, late this afternoon rendered a verdict holding J. H. Skinner, president of the building company, D. H. Burnham, director of the World's fair, and Assistant Fire Marshal Murphy and others to be grand jurors as responsible for the terrible loss of life.

All of the indicted men will give bond tomorrow. No order of arrest has been issued for the fire. The jury was affected by the verdict, which he declared was unjust, as he was neither negligent nor guilty of misconduct. Burnham was held on the ground that he was fully aware of the construction of the building and still permitted its erection in the grounds. Skinner and McDonald are held because they built the building and Murphy because it was alleged he did not fully investigate the fire before sending the men into the tower. Murphy himself said that the men were already in the tower when he arrived.

THREE MORE.

THE DENVER BANKS STILL FAILING.

COLORADO'S BIGGEST MINE.

Pumps Withdrawn from Big Silver Properties and the Work of Years Lost.

Denver, Colo., July 19.—The panic in this city opened this morning with renewed vigor as the result of the old German National bank, with a reputation for stability of twenty years' standing, the usually reputable State National and extremely strong Peoples' National banks having failed this morning. All night long depositors stood in line in front of the German National. By 9 o'clock one long sea of faces was stretching down Utah street.

At the opposite corner, where the State National has no long done business, there was also a crowd of anxious depositors. Here the people were relieved of their doubts when at 9 o'clock a notice was posted on the door that the bank would not open an account of lack of ready cash.

At the German National, just before opening time, a notice was posted on the door that the doors were closed temporarily. This notice caused a distressing scene. Men and women along the line broke out in tears and wailing. The run on all the remaining banks in the city has been renewed. Reliable people, however, say there will be no more suspensions.

The State National bank has just posted a notice that its doors will not be opened today.

The German National bank failed to open its doors this morning.

The Peoples' National bank has closed its doors, posting the following notice: "This bank is closed by order of the board of directors. Assets, $1,000,000; liabilities, $1,000,000."

PANAMA, July 19.—The Peoples' bank opened this morning with plenty of coin. Only $4 was drawn out. The first hour's deposits were liberal.

MORE IN KANSAS.

WASHINGTON, July 19.—The controller of the currency has been advised that the Hutchinson National bank, of Hutchinson, Kansas, has failed.

A NEWSPAPER GOES DOWN.

MOBILE, Ala., July 19.—The Daily Register, one of the oldest newspapers in the south, has made an assignment. Publication will continue by authority of the court.

WACO, Texas, July 19.—Senator Cooper says he will not vote for the repeal of the Sherman act unless a substitute is adopted. He is a free silver man.

LONDON, July 19.—Advice confirms the continued statement that President has wired an ultimatum to the Siamese government to be complied in within twenty-four hours.

PANAMA, July 19.—The Fivaro says the terms of the French ultimatum to Siam demand that Siam vacate the left bank of the Mekong river and give a guarantee for the faithful performance of the treaty obligations, and that Siam pay an indemnity for outrages on the French in Siam complex with these demands. Siam will control both sides of the river up to British territory.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 19.—The vice president and party arrived here at 10:30 a. m. on the steamer Corona from San Francisco, where they were given a reception yesterday.

Governor Markham, Mayor Elliott, the board of supervisors and a committee of leading citizens on board the tug Fairbank met the Corona at the entrance of the harbor and boarded her. There a fleet of over twenty tugs escorted the Corona down the bay. As she passed the presidio and Alcatraz, salutes of nineteen guns were fired by the United States artillery.

The vice president will be escorted from the wharf to the Baldwin by a troop of regular cavalry and a regiment of national guards this evening. There will be a public reception in Nicholas Hall, at which the vice president will be presented with the freedom of the city.

LEADVILLE, Colo., July 19.—Orders have been received to take out the pumps from the Great West and Harrietta combination. The shaft is nearly 1000 feet deep.

Pulling these pumps means the entire abandonment of one of the largest silver producers in the state, with prospects that water will rise to within 300 feet of the surface. This means that every drift and level will be flooded and every drive of the present workings, upon which $1,000,000 has been expended.

The flooding of the mine also means the flooding of properties lying below. It is impossible to estimate the damage caused.

CHICAGO, July 19.—President Higginbottom issued an order to close up Pugin Jim Corbett's vaudeville show on midway platform. Corbett has ignored the order, and the World-Telegram is waiting for orders from Higginbottom as to whether the order is to be executed by law proceedings or by force.

SAN BERNARDINO, Cal., July 19.—A party of eastern capitalists are visiting the Grand canon of the Colorado river. It is said, for the purpose of investigating the feasibility of laying an electric cable 500 miles in length along the river with which to drive small steamers through the Grand canon and other scenic points, where the cliffs over a mile in height overhang. Another feature of the scheme is said to be to generate surplus power down the river, where it will be used for pumping the water of the river to the height of from fifteen to twenty feet upon mesa lands for irrigation.

CHICAGO, July 19.—The coroner's jury investigating the World's fair fire, late this afternoon rendered a verdict holding J. H. Skinner, president of the building company, D. H. Burnham, director of the World's fair, and Assistant Fire Marshal Murphy and others to be grand jurors as responsible for the terrible loss of life.

All of the indicted men will give bond tomorrow. No order of arrest has been issued for the fire. The jury was affected by the verdict, which he declared was unjust, as he was neither negligent nor guilty of misconduct. Burnham was held on the ground that he was fully aware of the construction of the building and still permitted its erection in the grounds. Skinner and McDonald are held because they built the building and Murphy because it was alleged he did not fully investigate the fire before sending the men into the tower. Murphy himself said that the men were already in the tower when he arrived.

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

Your best remedy for Erysipelas, Catarrh Rheumatism, and Scrofula.

Salt Rheum, Sore Eyes Abscesses, Tumors Running Sores Scurvy, Humors, Itch Aneurism, Indigestion Pimples, Blisters Ringworm, Rashes Impure Blood Leucorrhoea, Dropsy Liver Complaint All cured by

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all Druggists. Price 25c. Six bottles, $1.50.

Two Engines in the Ditch.

The Southern Pacific road has had in preparation for floods and washouts great quantities of sacks, to be filled with sand and turned into weak places. The first occasion for their use has come. Last night the floods came and washed out the track at Stern's Pass.

In a few hours Contractor Spahr's train, loaded with material, was on the hill with a helper, ran into the weak spot. The result was a turning over of the engine and several box cars. Fortunately, no one was hurt. The wrecking crew left for there this morning. They hoped to have the road clear by evening.

No other washouts are reported.

Those who believe that Dr. Sagar's Catarrh Remedy will cure them are more likely to get well than those who don't.

If you happen to be one of those who don't believe, there's a matter of $500 to help your faith. If you let the makers of Dr. Sagar's remedy cure you, no matter how bad or how long standing your catarrh in the head may be. The makers of Dr. Sagar's Catarrh Remedy are the Medical Association, of Buffalo, N. Y. They are known to every newspaper publisher and every druggist in the land, and you can easily ascertain that their word is as good as their bond.

WASHINGTON, July 19.—The controller of the currency has been advised that the Hutchinson National bank, of Hutchinson, Kansas, has failed.

A NEWSPAPER GOES DOWN.

MOBILE, Ala., July 19.—The Daily Register, one of the oldest newspapers in the south, has made an assignment. Publication will continue by authority of the court.

WACO, Texas, July 19.—Senator Cooper says he will not vote for the repeal of the Sherman act unless a substitute is adopted. He is a free silver man.

LONDON, July 19.—Advice confirms the continued statement that President has wired an ultimatum to the Siamese government to be complied in within twenty-four hours.

PANAMA, July 19.—The Fivaro says the terms of the French ultimatum to Siam demand that Siam vacate the left bank of the Mekong river and give a guarantee for the faithful performance of the treaty obligations, and that Siam pay an indemnity for outrages on the French in Siam complex with these demands. Siam will control both sides of the river up to British territory.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 19.—The vice president and party arrived here at 10:30 a. m. on the steamer Corona from San Francisco, where they were given a reception yesterday.

Governor Markham, Mayor Elliott, the board of supervisors and a committee of leading citizens on board the tug Fairbank met the Corona at the entrance of the harbor and boarded her. There a fleet of over twenty tugs escorted the Corona down the bay. As she passed the presidio and Alcatraz, salutes of nineteen guns were fired by the United States artillery.

The vice president will be escorted from the wharf to the Baldwin by a troop of regular cavalry and a regiment of national guards this evening. There will be a public reception in Nicholas Hall, at which the vice president will be presented with the freedom of the city.

LEADVILLE, Colo., July 19.—Orders have been received to take out the pumps from the Great West and Harrietta combination. The shaft is nearly 1000 feet deep.

Pulling these pumps means the entire abandonment of one of the largest silver producers in the state, with prospects that water will rise to within 300 feet of the surface. This means that every drift and level will be flooded and every drive of the present workings, upon which $1,000,000 has been expended.

The flooding of the mine also means the flooding of properties lying below. It is impossible to estimate the damage caused.

CHICAGO, July 19.—President Higginbottom issued an order to close up Pugin Jim Corbett's vaudeville show on midway platform. Corbett has ignored the order, and the World-Telegram is waiting for orders from Higginbottom as to whether the order is to be executed by law proceedings or by force.

SAN BERNARDINO, Cal., July 19.—A party of eastern capitalists are visiting the Grand canon of the Colorado river. It is said, for the purpose of investigating the feasibility of laying an electric cable 500 miles in length along the river with which to drive small steamers through the Grand canon and other scenic points, where the cliffs over a mile in height overhang. Another feature of the scheme is said to be to generate surplus power down the river, where it will be used for pumping the water of the river to the height of from fifteen to twenty feet upon mesa lands for irrigation.

CHICAGO, July 19.—The coroner's jury investigating the World's fair fire, late this afternoon rendered a verdict holding J. H. Skinner, president of the building company, D. H. Burnham, director of the World's fair, and Assistant Fire Marshal Murphy and others to be grand jurors as responsible for the terrible loss of life.

All of the indicted men will give bond tomorrow. No order of arrest has been issued for the fire. The jury was affected by the verdict, which he declared was unjust, as he was neither negligent nor guilty of misconduct. Burnham was held on the ground that he was fully aware of the construction of the building and still permitted its erection in the grounds. Skinner and McDonald are held because they built the building and Murphy because it was alleged he did not fully investigate the fire before sending the men into the tower. Murphy himself said that the men were already in the tower when he arrived.

A CUTTING SCORPE.

Mike Sullivan's Throat Cut by J. Zimmerman.

Sullivan Says Zimmerman Drew the Knife First—The Constable Mamm.

Mike Sullivan's throat was cut last night by Constable Jack Zimmerman. The affair grew largely out of misunderstandings. It originated in a few words over a w.r.t. of attachment and the constable was fanned by talk from the outside relative to the matter. They met last night, words, explanations, peace, handshakes, drinks, more words, blows and the knife followed.

MIKE SULLIVAN'S STORY.

Mike Sullivan was in bed this morning, his usually ruddy face quite pale. Bandages surrounded his face, and on the right side of his neck a quantity of cotton protruded under the cloth. He smoked a cigarette prepared by his wife. He talked in low tones.

"I am pretty weak," he said, "but the loss of blood. Why, sure, I'll tell you all I know about the affair."

He explained that the beginning was two weeks ago, when a friend of his, Alex Cunningham, called him up about a matter of divorce. Cunningham was a S. P. relation. Sullivan advised Cunningham that the papers in the affair, made by Lawyer Murphy, should not be headed. A few days later Sullivan and Zimmerman met in Judge Cunningham's office. Cunningham said Sullivan was representing Cunningham. He was informed that he was. Sullivan had claimed the papers were not right, and had threatened to take a change of venue in the matter.

"Jack, in the meantime," continued Sullivan, "it seems, had heard that I was going to do him up. No knife and I have always been the best of friends. When he passed me on the street and didn't recognize me lately I didn't understand it."

WHERE IT BEGAN.

"Last night Cunningham and I were going up Meyer street, near the Palace hotel, where I was going, and we met Zimmerman—we happened to meet him. Cunningham said, 'We're making remarks about a divorce I had. He says: "I'm not afraid of you, Mike Sullivan. I heard you were looking for me to do me up." I told him I had no intention of doing him up. That Cunningham was my friend and that was his friend, but that was no cause for trouble between us. I told him I'd go to any man, woman or child in town and prove that I never said I was going to do him up. Cunningham said, 'Well, by golly, Mike, I think you are pretty good, after all. I am pretty sure there is nothing in it.' "You can rest assured there is nothing in it, I said. We then had three or four drinks, and Cunningham suggested that we go down town. As we went we met young Bob Paul. He seemed surprised to see Jack and I together. He said, 'Hello, you two together again? Zimmerman and I were shaking hands, and he held my hand about ten minutes. "When we got in front of Davis's house Jack brought the old trouble up again. I was tired of it and said: "With the Jack, Cunningham and Bob's help, I'll make it plain to him that I was all right, and pretty soon he said to me: 'Well, by golly, Mike, I think you are pretty good, after all. I am pretty sure there is nothing in it.' "You can rest assured there is nothing in it, I said. We then had three or four drinks, and Cunningham suggested that we go down town. As we went we met young Bob Paul. He seemed surprised to see Jack and I together. He said, 'Hello, you two together again? Zimmerman and I were shaking hands, and he held my hand about ten minutes. "When we got in front of Davis's house Jack brought the old trouble up again. I was tired of it and said: "With the Jack, Cunningham and Bob's help, I'll make it plain to him that I was all right, and pretty soon he said to me: 'Well, by golly, Mike, I think you are pretty good, after all. I am pretty sure there is nothing in it.' "You can rest assured there is nothing in it, I said. We then had three or four drinks, and Cunningham suggested that we go down town. As we went we met young Bob Paul. He seemed surprised to see Jack and I together. He said, 'Hello, you two together again? Zimmerman and I were shaking hands, and he held my hand about ten minutes. "When we got in front of Davis's house Jack brought the old trouble up again. I was tired of it and said: "With the Jack, Cunningham and Bob's help, I'll make it plain to him that I was all right, and pretty soon he said to me: 'Well, by golly, Mike, I think you are pretty good, after all. I am pretty sure there is nothing in it.' "You can rest assured there is nothing in it, I said. We then had three or four drinks, and Cunningham suggested that we go down town. As we went we met young Bob Paul. He seemed surprised to see Jack and I together. He said, 'Hello, you two together again? Zimmerman and I were shaking hands, and he held my hand about ten minutes. "When we got in front of Davis's house Jack brought the old trouble up again. I was tired of it and said: "With the Jack, Cunningham and Bob's help, I'll make it plain to him that I was all right, and pretty soon he said to me: 'Well, by golly, Mike, I think you are pretty good, after all. I am pretty sure there is nothing in it.' "You can rest assured there is nothing in it, I said. We then had three or four drinks, and Cunningham suggested that we go down town. As we went we met young Bob Paul. He seemed surprised to see Jack and I together. He said, 'Hello, you two together again? Zimmerman and I were shaking hands, and he held my hand about ten minutes. "When we got in front of Davis's house Jack brought the old trouble up again. I was tired of it and said: "With the Jack, Cunningham and Bob's help, I'll make it plain to him that I was all right, and pretty soon he said to me: 'Well, by golly, Mike, I think you are pretty good, after all. I am pretty sure there is nothing in it.' "You can rest assured there is nothing in it, I said. We then had three or four drinks, and Cunningham suggested that we go down town. As we went we met young Bob Paul. He seemed surprised to see Jack and I together. He said, 'Hello, you two together again? Zimmerman and I were shaking hands, and he held my hand about ten minutes. "When we got in front of Davis's house Jack brought the old trouble up again. I was tired of it and said: "With the Jack, Cunningham and Bob's help, I'll make it plain to him that I was all right, and pretty soon he said to me: 'Well, by golly, Mike, I think you are pretty good, after all. I am pretty sure there is nothing in it.' "You can rest assured there is nothing in it, I said. We then had three or four drinks, and Cunningham suggested that we go down town. As we went we met young Bob Paul. He seemed surprised to see Jack and I together. He said, 'Hello, you two together again? Zimmerman and I were shaking hands, and he held my hand about ten minutes. "When we got in front of Davis's house Jack brought the old trouble up again. I was tired of it and said: "With the Jack, Cunningham and Bob's help, I'll make it plain to him that I was all right, and pretty soon he said to me: 'Well, by golly, Mike, I think you are pretty good, after all. I am pretty sure there is nothing in it.' "You can rest assured there is nothing in it, I said. We then had three or four drinks, and Cunningham suggested that we go down town. As we went we met young Bob Paul. He seemed surprised to see Jack and I together. He said, 'Hello, you two together again? Zimmerman and I were shaking hands, and he held my hand about ten minutes. "When we got in front of Davis's house Jack brought the old trouble up again. I was tired of it and said: "With the Jack, Cunningham and Bob's help, I'll make it plain to him that I was all right, and pretty soon he said to me: 'Well, by golly, Mike, I think you are pretty good, after all. I am pretty sure there is nothing in it.' "You can rest assured there is nothing in it, I said. We then had three or four drinks, and Cunningham suggested that we go down town. As we went we met young Bob Paul. He seemed surprised to see Jack and I together. He said, 'Hello, you two together again? Zimmerman and I were shaking hands, and he held my hand about ten minutes. "When we got in front of Davis's house Jack brought the old trouble up again. I was tired of it and said: "With the Jack, Cunningham and Bob's help, I'll make it plain to him that I was all right, and pretty soon he said to me: 'Well, by golly, Mike, I think you are pretty good, after all. I am pretty sure there is nothing in it.' "You can rest assured there is nothing in it, I said. We then had three or four drinks, and Cunningham suggested that we go down town. As we went we met young Bob Paul. He seemed surprised to see Jack and I together. He said, 'Hello, you two together again? Zimmerman and I were shaking hands, and he held my hand about ten minutes. "When we got in front of Davis's house Jack brought the old trouble up again. I was tired of it and said: "With the Jack, Cunningham and Bob's help, I'll make it plain to him that I was all right, and pretty soon he said to me: 'Well, by golly, Mike, I think you are pretty good, after all. I am pretty sure there is nothing in it.' "You can rest assured there is nothing in it, I said. We then had three or four drinks, and Cunningham suggested that we go down town. As we went we met young Bob Paul. He seemed surprised to see Jack and I together. He said, 'Hello, you two together again? Zimmerman and I were shaking hands, and he held my hand about ten minutes. "When we got in front of Davis's house Jack brought the old trouble up again. I was tired of it and said: "With the Jack, Cunningham and Bob's help, I'll make it plain to him that I was all right, and pretty soon he said to me: 'Well, by golly, Mike, I think you are pretty good, after all. I am pretty sure there is nothing in it.' "You can rest assured there is nothing in it, I said. We then had three or four drinks, and Cunningham suggested that we go down town. As we went we met young Bob Paul. He seemed surprised to see Jack and I together. He said, 'Hello, you two together again? Zimmerman and I were shaking hands, and he held my hand about ten minutes. "When we got in front of Davis's house Jack brought the old trouble up again. I was tired of it and said: "With the Jack, Cunningham and Bob's help, I'll make it plain to him that I was all right, and pretty soon he said to me: 'Well, by golly, Mike, I think you are pretty good, after all. I am pretty sure there is nothing in it.' "You can rest assured there is nothing in it, I said. We then had three or four drinks, and Cunningham suggested that we go down town. As we went we met young Bob Paul. He seemed surprised to see Jack and I together. He said, 'Hello, you two together again? Zimmerman and I were shaking hands, and he held my hand about ten minutes. "When we got in front of Davis's house Jack brought the old trouble up again. I was tired of it and said: "With the Jack, Cunningham and Bob's help, I'll make it plain to him that I was all right, and pretty soon he said to me: 'Well, by golly, Mike, I think you are pretty good, after all. I am pretty sure there is nothing in it.' "You can rest assured there is nothing in it, I said. We then had three or four drinks, and Cunningham suggested that we go down town. As we went we met young Bob Paul. He seemed surprised to see Jack and I together. He said, 'Hello, you two together again? Zimmerman and I were shaking hands, and he held my hand about ten minutes. "When we got in front of Davis's house Jack brought the old trouble up again. I was tired of it and said: "With the Jack, Cunningham and Bob's help, I'll make it plain to him that I was all right, and pretty soon he said to me: 'Well, by golly, Mike, I think you are pretty good, after all. I am pretty sure there is nothing in it.' "You can rest assured there is nothing in it, I said. We then had three or four drinks, and Cunningham suggested that we go down town. As we went we met young Bob Paul. He seemed surprised to see Jack and I together. He said, 'Hello, you two together again? Zimmerman and I were shaking hands, and he held my hand about ten minutes. "When we got in front of Davis's house Jack brought the old trouble up again. I was tired of it and said: "With the Jack, Cunningham and Bob's help, I'll make it plain to him that I was all right, and pretty soon he said to me: 'Well, by golly, Mike, I think you are pretty good, after all. I am pretty sure there is nothing in it.' "You can rest assured there is nothing in it, I said. We then had three or four drinks, and Cunningham suggested that we go down town. As we went we met young Bob Paul. He seemed surprised to see Jack and I together. He said, 'Hello, you two together again? Zimmerman and I were shaking hands, and he held my hand about ten minutes. "When we got in front of Davis's house Jack brought the old trouble up again. I was tired of it and said: "With the Jack, Cunningham and Bob's help, I'll make it plain to him that I was all right, and pretty soon he said to me: 'Well, by golly, Mike, I think you are pretty good, after all. I am pretty sure there is nothing in it.' "You can rest assured there is nothing in it, I said. We then had three or four drinks, and Cunningham suggested that we go down town. As we went we met young Bob Paul. He seemed surprised to see Jack and I together. He said, 'Hello, you two together again? Zimmerman and I were shaking hands, and he held my hand about ten minutes. "When we got in front of Davis's house Jack brought the old trouble up again. I was tired of it and said: "With the Jack, Cunningham and Bob's help, I'll make it plain to him that I was all right, and pretty soon he said to me: 'Well, by golly, Mike, I think you are pretty good, after all. I am pretty sure there is nothing in it.' "You can rest assured there is nothing in it, I said. We then had three or four drinks, and Cunningham suggested that we go down town. As we went we met young Bob Paul. He seemed surprised to see Jack and I together. He said, 'Hello, you two together again? Zimmerman and I were shaking hands, and he held my hand about ten minutes. "When we got in front of Davis's house Jack brought the old trouble up again. I was tired of it and said: "With the Jack, Cunningham and Bob's help, I'll make it plain to him that I was all right, and pretty soon he said to me: 'Well, by golly, Mike, I think you are pretty good, after all. I am pretty sure there is nothing in it.' "You can rest assured there is nothing in it, I said. We then had three or four drinks, and Cunningham suggested that we go down town. As we went we met young Bob Paul. He seemed surprised to see Jack and I together. He said, 'Hello, you two together again? Zimmerman and I were shaking hands, and he held my hand about ten minutes. "When we got in front of Davis's house Jack brought the old trouble up again. I was tired of it and said: "With the Jack, Cunningham and Bob's help, I'll make it plain to him that I was all right, and pretty soon he said to me: 'Well, by golly, Mike, I think you are pretty good, after all. I am pretty sure there is nothing in it.' "You can rest assured there is nothing in it, I said. We then had three or four drinks, and Cunningham suggested that we go down town. As we went we met young Bob Paul. He seemed surprised to see Jack and I together. He said, 'Hello, you two together again? Zimmerman and I were shaking hands, and he held my hand about ten minutes. "When we got in front of Davis's house Jack brought the old trouble up again. I was tired of it and said: "With the Jack, Cunningham and Bob's help, I'll make it plain to him that I was all right, and pretty soon he said to me: 'Well, by golly, Mike, I think you are pretty good, after all. I am pretty sure there is nothing in it.' "You can rest assured there is nothing in it, I said. We then had three or four drinks, and Cunningham suggested that we go down town. As we went we met young Bob Paul. He seemed surprised to see Jack and I together. He said, 'Hello, you two together again? Zimmerman and I were shaking hands, and he held my hand about ten minutes. "When we got in front of Davis's house Jack brought the old trouble up again. I was tired of it and said: "With the Jack, Cunningham and Bob's help, I'll make it plain to him that I was all right, and pretty soon he said to me: 'Well, by golly, Mike, I think you are pretty good, after all. I am pretty sure there is nothing in it.' "You can rest assured there is nothing in it, I said. We then had three or four drinks, and Cunningham suggested that we go down town. As we went we met young Bob Paul. He seemed surprised to see Jack and I together. He said, 'Hello, you two together again? Zimmerman and I were shaking hands, and he held my hand about ten minutes. "When we got in front of Davis's house Jack brought the old trouble up again. I was tired of it and said: "With the Jack, Cunningham and Bob's help, I'll make it plain to him that I was all right, and pretty soon he said to me: 'Well, by golly, Mike, I think you are pretty good, after all. I am pretty sure there is nothing in it.' "You can rest assured there is nothing in it, I said. We then had three or four drinks, and Cunningham suggested that we go down town. As we went we met young Bob Paul. He seemed surprised to see Jack and I together. He said, 'Hello, you two together again? Zimmerman and I were shaking hands, and he held my hand about ten minutes. "When we got in front of Davis's house Jack brought the old trouble up again. I was tired of it and said: "With the Jack, Cunningham and Bob's help, I'll make it plain to him that I was all right, and pretty soon he said to me: 'Well, by golly, Mike, I think you are pretty good, after all. I am pretty sure there is nothing in it.' "You can rest assured there is nothing in it, I said. We then had three or four drinks, and Cunningham suggested that we go down town. As we went we met young Bob Paul. He seemed surprised to see Jack and I together. He said, 'Hello, you two together again? Zimmerman and I were shaking hands, and he held my hand about ten minutes. "When we got in front of Davis's house Jack brought the old trouble up again. I was tired of it and said: "With the Jack, Cunningham and Bob's help, I'll make it plain to him that I was all right, and pretty soon he said to me: 'Well, by golly, Mike, I think you are pretty good, after all. I am pretty sure there is nothing in it.' "You can rest assured there is nothing in it, I said. We then had three or four drinks, and Cunningham suggested that we go down town. As we went we met young Bob Paul. He seemed surprised to see Jack and I together. He said, 'Hello, you two together again? Zimmerman and I were shaking hands, and he held my hand about ten minutes. "When we got in front of Davis's house Jack brought the old trouble up again. I was tired of it and said: "With the Jack, Cunningham and Bob's help, I'll make it plain to him that I was all right, and pretty soon he said to me: 'Well, by golly, Mike, I think you are pretty good, after all. I am pretty sure there is nothing in it.' "You can rest assured there is nothing in it, I said. We then had three or four drinks, and Cunningham suggested that we go down town. As we went we met young Bob Paul. He seemed surprised to see Jack and I together. He said, 'Hello, you two together again? Zimmerman and I were shaking hands, and he held my hand about ten minutes. "When we got in front of Davis's house Jack brought the old trouble up again. I was tired of it and said: "With the Jack, Cunningham and Bob's help, I'll make it plain to him that I was all right, and pretty soon he said to me: 'Well, by golly, Mike, I think you are pretty good, after all. I am pretty sure there is nothing in it.' "You can rest assured there is nothing in it, I said. We then had three or four drinks, and Cunningham suggested that we go down town. As we went we met young Bob Paul. He seemed surprised to see Jack and I together. He said, 'Hello, you two together again? Zimmerman and I were shaking hands, and he held my hand about ten minutes. "When we got in front of Davis's house Jack brought the old trouble up again. I was tired of it and said: "With the Jack, Cunningham and Bob's help, I'll make it plain to him that I was all right, and pretty soon he said to me: 'Well, by golly, Mike, I think you are pretty good, after all. I am pretty sure there is nothing in it.' "You can rest assured there is nothing in it, I said. We then had three or four drinks, and Cunningham suggested that we go down town. As we went we met young Bob Paul. He seemed surprised to see Jack and I together. He said, 'Hello, you two together again? Zimmerman and I were shaking hands, and he held my hand about ten minutes. "When we got in front of Davis's house Jack brought the old trouble up again. I was tired of it and said: "With the Jack, Cunningham and Bob's help, I'll make it plain to him that I was all right, and pretty soon he said to me: 'Well, by golly, Mike, I think you are pretty good, after all. I am pretty sure there is nothing in it.' "You can rest assured there is nothing in it, I said. We then had three or four drinks, and Cunningham suggested that we go down town. As we went we met young Bob Paul. He seemed surprised to see Jack and I together. He said, 'Hello, you two together again? Zimmerman and I were shaking hands, and he held my hand about ten minutes. "When we got in front of Davis's house Jack brought the old trouble up again. I was tired of it and said: "With the Jack, Cunningham and Bob's help, I'll make it plain to him that I was all right, and pretty soon he said to me: 'Well, by golly, Mike, I think you are pretty good, after all. I am pretty sure there is nothing in it.' "You can rest assured there is nothing in it, I said. We then had three or four drinks, and Cunningham suggested that we go down town. As we went we met young Bob Paul. He seemed surprised to see Jack and I together. He said, 'Hello, you two together again? Zimmerman and I were shaking hands, and he held my hand about ten minutes. "When we got in front of Davis's house Jack brought the old trouble up again. I was tired of it and said: "With the Jack, Cunningham and Bob's help, I'll make it plain to him that I was all right, and pretty soon he said to me: 'Well, by golly, Mike, I think you are pretty good, after all. I am pretty sure there is nothing in it.' "You can rest assured there is nothing in it, I said. We then had three or four drinks, and Cunningham suggested that we go down town. As we went we met young Bob Paul. He seemed surprised to see Jack and I together. He said, 'Hello, you two together again? Zimmerman and I were shaking hands, and he held my hand about ten minutes. "When we got in front of Davis's house Jack brought the old trouble up again. I was tired of it and said: "With the Jack, Cunningham and Bob's help, I'll make it plain to him that I was all right, and pretty soon he said to me: 'Well, by golly, Mike, I think you are pretty good, after all. I am pretty sure there is nothing in it.' "You can rest assured there is nothing in it, I said. We then had three or four drinks, and Cunningham suggested that we go down town. As we went we met young Bob Paul. He seemed surprised to see Jack and I together. He said, 'Hello, you two together again? Zimmerman and I were shaking hands, and he held my hand about ten minutes. "When we got in front of Davis's house Jack brought the old trouble up again. I was tired of it and said: "With the Jack, Cunningham and Bob's help, I'll make it plain to him that I was all right, and pretty soon he said to me: 'Well, by golly, Mike, I think you are pretty good, after all. I am pretty sure there is nothing in it.' "You can rest assured there is nothing in it, I said. We then had three or four drinks, and Cunningham suggested that we go down town. As we went we met young Bob Paul. He seemed surprised to see Jack and I together. He said, 'Hello, you two together again? Zimmerman and I were shaking hands, and he held my hand about ten minutes. "When we got in front of Davis's house Jack brought the old trouble up again. I was tired of it and said: "With the Jack, Cunningham and Bob's help, I'll make it plain to him that I was all right, and pretty soon he said to me: 'Well, by golly, Mike, I think you are pretty good, after all. I am pretty sure there is nothing in it.' "You can rest assured there is nothing in it, I said. We then had three or four drinks, and Cunningham suggested that we go down town. As we went we met young Bob Paul. He seemed surprised to see Jack and I together. He said, 'Hello, you two together again? Zimmerman and I were shaking hands, and he held my hand about ten minutes. "When we got in front of Davis's house Jack brought the old trouble up again. I was tired of it and said: "With the Jack, Cunningham and Bob's help, I'll make it plain to him that I was all right, and pretty soon he said to me: 'Well, by golly, Mike, I think you are pretty good, after all. I am pretty sure there is nothing in it.' "You can rest assured there is nothing in it, I said. We then had three or four drinks, and Cunningham suggested that we go down town. As we went we met young Bob Paul. He seemed surprised to see Jack and I together. He said, 'Hello, you two together again? Zimmerman and I were shaking hands, and he held my hand about ten minutes. "When we got in front of Davis's house Jack brought the old trouble up again. I was tired of it and said: "With the Jack, Cunningham and Bob's help, I'll make it plain to him that I was all right, and pretty soon he said to me: 'Well, by golly, Mike, I think you are pretty good, after all. I am pretty sure there is nothing in it.' "You can rest assured there is nothing in it, I said. We then had three or four drinks, and Cunningham suggested that we go down town. As we went we met young Bob Paul. He seemed surprised to see Jack and I together. He said, 'Hello, you two together again? Zimmerman and I were shaking hands, and he held my hand about ten minutes. "When we got in front of Davis's house Jack brought the old trouble up again. I was tired of it and said: "With the Jack, Cunningham and Bob's help, I'll make it plain to him that I was all right, and pretty soon he said to me: 'Well, by golly, Mike, I think you are pretty good, after all. I am pretty sure there is nothing in it.' "You can rest assured there is nothing